

Les adjectifs:

- describes a noun
- agrees in gender and number

General Rules for Agreement:

	Singulier	Pluriel
Masculin	-	s
Féminin	e	es

Since this is French, of course there are exceptions!

1. If the adjective in the masculine form ends in an "e", you do not add another one (unless it is an é!)
2. If the adjective in the masculine singular form ends in an "s" or "x", you do not add another "s" or "x" in the plural form

But wait, there's more....
